

An architectural drawing of a long, multi-story building with a grid-like facade, possibly a school or institutional building. The drawing is rendered in a sketchy, hand-drawn style with light lines and some shading. It is centered on a textured, light-colored background. A prominent white double-line octagonal frame is superimposed over the drawing, with two horizontal white bars crossing it. The text 'PATRIMONIO UC' is written in a clean, white, sans-serif font across the middle of the frame.
