

A photograph of a circular interior space, possibly a chapel or a museum. In the center, a crucifix is displayed on a wooden base. The walls are white and feature a grid of small, circular perforations that allow light to pass through, creating a pattern of small, glowing circles. The ceiling is dark and appears to be made of a textured material. The overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative. A white, double-lined octagonal frame is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the text "PATRIMONIO UC".
