Dear Mr. Brenner,

After the conversation we had this afternoon concerning Mr. Rojas and other contracts I wish to confirm that you should write to the English publisher, Victor Gollancz of London, that as per agreement with Library Publishers conforming with the contract they had signed with Library Publishers for the British rights of BORN GUILTY that the share of royalties due to Library Publishers 50% in this case shall be paid by Gollancz to whom Library Publishers wishes and concerning the share of Mr. Rojas, in this case the other 50% shall be paid directly to Mr. Rojas or to me with each statement, they will receive notification to whom to pay the royalties belonging to Mr. Rojas.

As soon as I will have this confirmation from Mess. Gollancz of London I will give you the release of Mr. Rojas.

I am,

Sincerely Yours
