Dear Manuel Rojas:

A copy of a letter to Martin L. Wolf of the Library Publishers dated November 14th, 1955 together with a copy of a contract between Manuel Rojas Sepulveda and the Library Publishers for the publication of HIJO DE LADRON, were received here by registered mail on November 18th and referred to me.

While we are always interested in having information about book publishers in our files, we cannot advise nonmembers in contract difficulties. This service is available only to members of the Authors League.

As a matter of fact, our advice in contractual matters consists of interpretation and suggestions. Where a controversy between author and publisher has arisen it is quite often necessary to take the matter up with an attorney.

Sincerely yours,

Edith Mackin
