Dear Mr. Rojas:

We have progressed quite nicely with the translation of your book,
HIJO DE LADRON.

In preparing our publicity and promotional campaigns, it is probable that we will want to have some reference to the background of the author. In this connection we will be most appreciative if you will send to us a thumbnail autobiography setting forth such factors as your early life, educational history, employment pursuits, religious or other community activities and any or all aspects of your career which you believe might be of interest and value to the publicizing of this volume.
