Dear Mr. Rojas,

Thank you for your very kind letter of April 8th and for your consent in principle to our edition of "HIJO DE LADRON". Let us convey to you expressions of our warm gratitude.

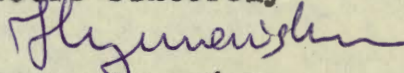

We quite understand you may feel the necessity of changing your plans, nevertheless we are sorry indeed that your intended trip to Europe has to be postponed. We very much hope you and Mrs Rojas shall be able to visit our country in a not too distant future.

Since you authorise us to translate your novel, we are sending you, enclosed, a draft contract for "HIJO DE LADRON". Will you be kind enough to sign it and return both copies to us. We may add that we cannot proceed with our translation and publication before we have fulfilled all formalities required at this end. Will you please also insert your address in the contract.

We have stipulated the royalty in non-transferable zlotys to be paid not later than three months after publication. Should you be in a position to come to Poland earlier we shall remit to you a full amount of the royalties. Otherwise, we shall in due time deposit the royalties for you in the Bank Handlowy in Warsaw.

With kindest regards

Yours sincerely

Irena Szymańska
