Mr. Albrecht Leonhardt Literary Agency Lovstraede 8 Copenhagen, Denmark

Dear Mr. Leonhardt;

Your letter, which was addressed to me in Kennewick, Washington, did not reach me here in Santiago until yesterday. For any further correspondence that may be necessary between us, my present address is: Vespucio Sur 1919-116, Santiago, CHILE.

In regards to your inquiry, I should be very happy to give you the option on Punta de Rieles (the original title in Spanish) for Norway, Finland and Sweden. As for Denmark, I have already written to a Mr. Kurt Michaels authorizing him to publish the Danish translation. If, however, he should refuse my offer, I would gladly concede the rights for translation to you. My arrangements with him still depend on his reply to my offer, which I am awaiting at present. In the event that you would like to go ahead with the publication in Sweden, Finland and Norway, my terms would be the same for you as those I expressed to Mr. Michaels: $200.00 advance payment perntrans latticing de Literatura Chilena

Punta de Rieles has not yet been translated to English. Naturally, I'd prefer that you do the Expansion Manteen Cita original Spanish, but should that be impossible, I would approve the use of the German edition.

I have written several other novels, which include: Mejor que el Vino, Lanchas en la Bahía, Sombras contra el Muro and Hijo de Ladrón. Hijo de Ladrón has been translated to English, French, German, Russian, Polish, Yugoslav, Swedish, Italian and Portuguese. Mejor que el Vino came out last year in the U.S.S.R., where the translations of Punta de Rieles and Sombras contra el Muro will also be published next year. Hijo de Ladrón was published in Stockholm with the title Son till en tjuv.

I thank you for the interest you have expressed in my book, and trusting that you will find my terms for publication satisfactory, I look forward to hearing from you again in the near future.

Cordially

Manuel Rojas
