Dear Senor Rojas:

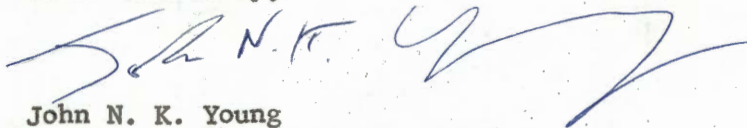

Mr. Cloudman has passed on to me your letter of June 13. I have been informed that the check for $300.00 is now on its way to you.

We must all apologize for the delay. The young lady who was in charge of ordering checks for permissions fees left the Company, and her successor is only just getting caught up.

I trust that this will reestablish in your eyes our reputation as a businesslike organization. If the check does not reach you within two weeks, please write to me personally.

Yours sincerely,
