

A black and white photograph of a modern architectural complex. In the foreground, a large, dark, multi-tiered concrete sculpture stands on a grassy lawn. The sculpture consists of several thick, horizontal rectangular blocks stacked vertically, with a tall, narrow vertical column rising from the top. A person is visible on one of the upper levels of the sculpture. In the background, a long, multi-story building with a grid of windows and balconies stretches across the horizon. A covered walkway or bridge connects different parts of the building. The sky is clear and bright. A dark horizontal band with white text is overlaid on the middle of the image.
