

A black and white photograph of a modern architectural complex, likely a university campus. The scene is dominated by dark, angular concrete structures and walkways. In the center, a large, white, double-lined octagonal graphic is superimposed over the image. Inside this octagon, the text "PATRIMONIO UC" is written in a clean, sans-serif font. The background shows a multi-story building with a grid of windows and a street with a lamppost under a cloudy sky.
