Dear Mrs. Echeverria:

I hope you will forgive the liberty I am taking in addressing this letter to you, but Miss Grant suggested that I communicate with you regarding the possibility of giving a talk for the Pan American Women's Association on the evening of Friday, February 20th, at 8:30 P.M..

It has been impossible for me to reach you by telephone, since the hotel where you formerly resided, did not tell me until yesterday where you were at present. When I phoned your hotel yesterday, they told me you were not there, and tonight when I called, you were not at home.

I should deeply appreciate your calling me at my home, Chelsea 3-1462, when you receive this, and sincerely hope that you will excuse the haste of this note, and the fact that I am imposing upon your kindness without benefit of your acquaintance.

Very truly yours,

Francine A. Dunlavy
