

NOTED CHILEAN NOVELIST MEETS
WELL-KNOWN AUTHORESS

New York...Mari Yan, noted Chilean novelist in the United States preparing a series of articles on women in civilian defense for EL MERCURIO, Santiago, Chile, met Pearl S. Buck, well-known authoress of "The Good Earth" in a special interview (3-10-43). Miss Buck now heads The East and West Association, 40 East 49 Street, New York City, a non-profit and non-political organization which endeavors to furnish United States institutions of learning with more sympathetic methods of interpreting the common man in all countries of the world as well as giving other countries a more intimate understanding of everyday life in the United States. "Already we have prepared manuels on how to teach about people in China and India. Our next series of manuels will deal with various republics of Latin America", declared Miss Buck.

Photo shows:

Mari Yan (left) as she thumbed through Pearl S. Buck's novel 'Dragon Seed'.

IMMEDIATE RELEASE. OFFICE OF THE COORDINATOR OF INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS
444 Madison Avenue
New York, New York