

Juan Pablo Izquierdo conductor

Juan Pablo Izquierdo, conductor.

Le Monde, Paris, 14th February 1978.

Front Page.

Mache, Darasse, Nunes.

New Stars in Music.

These works and Varèse's "Intégrales" were interpreted superbly by the Orchestre Philharmonique of Radio-France under the direction of Juan Pablo Izquierdo, the Chilean conductor, whose reputation grows more and more.

Jacques Lonchamp.

Hannoversche Allgemeine Zeitung, 30th January 1978.

The Days of New Music in Hanover. (Headline). NDR Hanover.

An intelligent conductor, experienced in modern music with much temperament and a feeling for sound up to his fingertips.

This evening gave us the image of a subscription concert, and it is a good idea to mix new works with classical moderns, such as Prokofiev's "Scythian Suite" (1913), which Izquierdo conducted with a glowing interpretation revealing his close familiarity with the score.

Erich Limmert.