6th Feb. 1937.

Dear Senora Echeverria,

You will, I hope, remember meeting me at the Pen Congress, to which I came as the delegate from Australia. You kindly asked me to let you know when I came to Santiago, so I write to say that I shall be here until next Wednesday when I move to a pension kept by Mrs. Wodehouse.

I should like so much to see you again & to show you my Australian photographs; & would you kindly give me the address of the Secretary of the Chilean P.P.N. as I ought to let her know I am here? It would be very pleasant to meet some Chilean writers, only unfortunately I only speak English, & I am afraid I have arrived at a time when most people are away.

I stayed much longer than I expected at the Legación de Holanda <sup>in Buenos Aires</sup> - My friends would not allow me to go before Christmas - & since then I have been staying at Sir George Kenrick's in Valparaiso.

Hoping to meet you again - perhaps you could have tea with me on Monday or Tuesday? -

I am Yours sincerely,

Ruth W. Bedford.
