

A black and white photograph of a classical-style sculpture of a seated female figure. The figure is shown from the waist up, leaning back with her head tilted upwards and eyes closed. Her right arm is bent, with her hand resting on her left thigh. She is wearing a draped garment that covers her lower body. The sculpture is set against a dark, solid background. A watermark consisting of a double-lined hexagonal border with the text "PATRIMONIO UC" inside is centered over the middle of the image.
