The Israel Soloists Ensemble

The Israel Soloists Ensemble consists of 13 string players, all members of the Israel Chamber Orchestra.

This group was founded in 1979, and performed with great success at prestigious festivals such as Positano (Italy), and Bergen (Norway), with Christoff Eshenbach, and Barbara Hendricks and other famous artists.

In 2000 the ensemble renewed its activities, playing successfully at the “Musica Sacra” festival in Nazereth, Abu Gosh Festival (Jerusalem), Tel Aviv Festival, and recently at the “Musicameri” festival in Eilat.

The members of the ensemble are acknowledged to be the foremost Israeli string players, performing brilliantly a large repertoire of chamber and orchestral music.

One of the most popular projects of the last season was a unique performance of works by Astor Piazzolla as well as other tango composers and the Israeli premiere of the “Misa Cubana“ by Jose Maria

Vitier together with the “Philharmonia singers” choir. Both programs are available on C.D. .

The main goal of the ensemble is to present unique programs containing solo, chamber and small orchestral pieces, combined with new arrangements and works, composed especially for the ensemble.

The ensemble members are:

Violin 1	Vladimir Reider - concertmaster Simon Dreiblate Genady Cogan Pavel Levine
Violin 2	David Braude Rina Gutkin Sergey Bogine
Viola	Arie Bar Droma Orna Godlewski
Cello	Zinovy Chayf Israel Bercovich Lev Tolchinski
Contrabasso	Orit Zelniker Shay Pecker

In its permanent home in Jaffa, the ensemble performs several series of subscription concerts, such as: Italian Baroque Music, The Classical Composer Series, Western Modern Music, etc.

In addition, the ensemble performs, special concerts such as: Concerts for Children, Master's Class Concerts and Benefit Concerts.
