Through special arrangements made between the Soviet trade organization Mezhdunarodnaya Kniga and their American representatives Recording Artist Music Corporation, Columbia is pleased to present the second in an historic series of performance recordings. The series will cover the first five New York appearances in 1960 of the great pianist Sviatoslav Richter. These memorable concerts were unprecedented in their musical substance audience reaction and critical acclaim.

Since the recordings were made in actual performances, there is deviation here and there in technical quality. This is more than compensated for, as you will hear for yourself, in the brilliance and vitality of the performing artist.
